

General Manager (Engineering & Process)

Reporting Relationship	Head of Technical (SGMT)
Supervision Responsibility	Deputy General Manager (Engineering & Process) Manager (Engineering & Process) Deputy Manager (Engineering & Process) Manager (Database Management) Data Management Assistant

Summary of Position

Responsible for managing/erection of surface processing facilities including hands-on experience of multiple projects with oil/condensate, gas & LPG processing/handling facilities design, implementation, commissioning and operations/maintenance in compliance with HSEQ standards. Also, project management/progress monitoring, production optimization, loss prevention, debottle-necking/augmentation planning and implementation, preparation of bid documents and evaluation, design/construction/material selection of pipe lines etc., technical/economic evaluation of work program related to Well Completion design, well head Production facilities, Extended Well Testing, Field Development Plan, dealt with Gas/oil/condensate/LPG Sales Purchase Agreements

Duties & Responsibilities:

The responsibilities of this position include, but are not limited to the following:

- To manage and coordinate a technical team for economic and technical valuation for approval and execution of work program related to Well Completion design, well head Production, Extended Well Testing, and Field Development Plan;
- To advise the Senior General Manager Technical on issues related to Extended Well Testing, production facilities, pipe lines, Oil transportation and Gas processing Plants;
- To apprise and advise Senior General Manager Technical on optimum ways to put a field on early production so as to start cash flow with the necessary plants and facilities;
- Reviewing field production optimization and plant performance;
- Reviewing and advising Senior General Manager Technical on the approval of AFE's and any contract variations, and change of order;
- Monitor the production from producing fields and Project execution program, and ensure the implementation of steps which may be required to prevent, halt or minimize delays, budget overruns or conditions adverse to quality objective;
- Represent the Company and participate in the Technical/ Operating/Management Committee meetings and workshops;
- Technical reviewing and recommendation for change in Gas Sales Purchase Agreement, Crude Oil/Condensate Sales Purchase Agreement and Engineering Contract Agreement;
- Periodic review of reserves deliverability, well intervention, pressure surveys, projected production and investment forecast;
- Provide planning, fiscal coordination, budget preparation and resource management;
- To undertake any other job assigned by the Technical Head.

Desired Qualification:

- Bachelor's in Petroleum/Chemical/Mechanical Engineering, from a reputed HEC accredited institution.

Minimum Experience:

- 17 years in Oil and Gas Production and Gas processing Operations/designing and Project Management, with at least five years at management level.

Required Skills:

- Good working knowledge of process related softwares;
- Excellent interpersonal, presentation and communication skills;
- Must have good level of computer literacy with MS Office.

Max Age: 55 years.